Finish Reports for OEDP Study

Wednesday, Aug. 8 has been set as a deadline for the completion of reports for the study of the Overall Economic Development Program, W. H. Gordon, president of the Chamber of Commerce and committee chairman, announced last Wednesday night.

The group's sixth meeting, the program's 21 committee chairmen have completed reports on the following: city planning; Bar Harbor business men's; Government facilities; Mrs. Williams, youth; Charles Carter, Jr., civic and fraternal; and Clarence Lachner and Mrs. Lachner, fisheries and wild-

Only a few committees have been able to show interest and do their share," Gordon said, "and unless we see immediate results from these few, their jobs will be assigned to those who are willing to work."

A mass meeting, open to the general public, was suggested, upon completion of the report as a means of informing the people of the program's purposes. "Not enough people know what is being done, or trying to do," Gordon said.

The program will benefit the city as well as Bay St. Louis and Waveland proper, and in addition to the city's water works and sewerage project, Johnson has proposed plans for a new mill in the northern county which would provide jobs for 50 to 100 people.

Eligibility for aid under the Redevelopment Act is based on underemployment in the area," Gordon pointed out.

Hancock County's OEDP report is approved, the percent of government grants in aid will depend largely upon the size and number of job opportunities provided by proposed projects.

The next scheduled meeting is Aug. 8 at which time all reports will be collected to be condensed into a single report which will be channeled through the State Agricultural and Industrial Board to the ARA in Washington.

Five senior vacancies remain for Bay St. Louis CAP Squadron.

Five senior vacancies remain in the Bay St. Louis squadron of the Civil Air Patrol to be filled shortly, according to M. G. (Jack) Seuzanneau, commander. Plans to establish a squadron along the Gulf Coast before the hurricane season were outlined at a recent meeting in which Col. Palmer Bridges, 1st Air Division commander, was present.

The Bay squadron will be composed of 15 members at the present time, having been disbanded in 1958 because its size was too small.

Contrasts 'Misleading' Col. Raymond Replies

"Without a detailed breakdown of each piece of land, to simply cite lump sum figures in contrast can be terribly misleading," Col. D. A. Raymond, District Engineer at Mobile, wrote Rep. William M. Colmer last week in reply to the Congressman's inquiries about reported discrepancies in prices offered for tracts in the Hancock County test site.

Taking note of an article in the New Orleans States-Item suggesting inconsistencies by citing the price offered by the Engineers for a 40-acre tract as more than that for 80 acres, Col. Raymond observed that location, fertility, timber growth, road access, upkeep, drainage, shape, size and numerous other factors enhance the value.

"Where houses are involved size, construction, age, upkeep and fixtures all must be taken into consideration."

The 80-acre farm is in a remote area about 3/4 miles from a paved road, land is marginal for agriculture, with no merchantable timber, the owner has only half interest in the mineral and the dwelling is in poor repair, he cited. "In contrast, the 40-acre site is located on a paved road, to only 1,000 feet from a main state highway, the owner has all the mineral interest, there is merchantable timber on the tract and the house is in fair condition."

He noted Colmer had been informed on experienced land appraiser, dispatched by the chief of Engineers after complaints by some property owners, had found appraisal methods used were "well established recognized appraisal principles and appraisals were being made in accordance with the laws of just compensation for federal projects."

The landowners committee questioned value of land in the easement area after imposition of the easement which prohibits human habitation, Raymond continued. On this case a reappraisal was made and it was found that "the position of the original appraisers that the land would have substantial value after the imposition of the easement has been confirmed. However, in those cases where the value of the easement is a substantial portion of the full fee value, consideration is given to the request of the landowner for the full fee acquisition."

Condemnation Process Started for 54 Tracts

Condemnation proceedings are being prepared against 54 tracts in the fee area of the Hancock County test site, O. B. Moore, project manager for the Corps of Engineers' land acquisition office, reported Wednesday.

With the deadline for negotiations now past, he said owners of 101 tracts covering 784 acres have signed options to sell to the government at a total cost of $707,000. Negotiations are to commence shortly with International Paper Co. and Crosby Forest Products, Inc., he added.

Moore expressed hope that owners of many of the remaining 54 tracts will realize the need for land acquisition and agree to a lower number of acres than they have offered. He said he probably will be covered weeks before the papers are filed by U. S. District Attorney Robert E. Hensberg in Federal District Court at Biloxi.

Right-of-way sales were recorded during the week: Pedro Davis, 1.25 acres at $4,600; Hurchill H. Levinghouse, .41 acre at $1,100; Lawrence Carver, 1.25 acres at $4,425; Cora Davis, 12.50 acres at $8,350; Emil J. Schultheis, 5.25 acres at $4,987.50; trustees of First Baptist Church of Gainesville, Negro, 1.26 acres at $9,450; James Claude Keller, 1 acre at $10,600; and Gustie Woods, 1 acre at $9,500.

Two more employees joined the real estate office this week. Mrs. Doris B. Cronin, formerly with Bradley Air Force Base, Mobile, is clerk-typist and with her husband and three children resides on Second Street. John D. Bird, formerly with Bird and Sons Real Estate Co., a local resident, is serving as appraiser.

James D. Margun returned to the Mobile district office after two weeks temporary assignment here while Albert R. Murvall, attorney with the real estate division in Mobile, is here this week to assist with title work.

chairman, Boseman, and City Commissioner J. Cyril Glover, plan a meeting in the near future with the county board of supervisors to discuss with them, planning outside the city limits.

Committee members were instructed to familiarize themselves with the land use plan and zoning ordinances so that alterations and corrections might be made at the August meeting.

Seek Lott in Olen Theft

Local law enforcement officials testified Tuesday before Judge William J. O'Hara in New Orleans at an extradition hearing seeking the return of Joseph Lott, charged in the break-in at the former Olen's Department Store here in March, 1961.

Appearing were Chief Deputy Sheriff Gerald V. Price, Jr., Bay Police Chief Alcino Saucier and Waveland Marshal Fred Bourgeois. Less recently completed a jail sentence in New Orleans.

Sheriff Gerald Price said he will seek the return of Bobby Evans, local jail escapee, when he is released Aug. 14 by Arizona authorities after being arrested there on theft charges. Evans was granted a temporary leave from jail here last year after his father died and never returned.

The sheriff and Deputy Sheriff Nicolas were in Jackson Tuesday for the state-wide sheriff's meeting when a committee was authorized to draft arrangements for the separation of the sheriff and tax collector offices as provided by a recent constitutional amendment.

End 36-Hour Search For Sixth Drowning

A 30-year-old Metairie man, father of two young children, lost weekend became Hancock County's sixth water fatality of 1962 and the third within a two-mile stretch off the seawall in Waveland this summer.

The body of Nathaniel (Tippy) Hammond was recovered about 6:40 a.m. Monday about 25 yards off Nicholson Avenue after an extensive search which began about 6 p.m. Saturday afternoon when the speed hull in which he and two companions were fishing capsize about a mile from shore.

Raymond Triche of Marrero, La., and George Parr of Jefferson Parish elected to cling to the overturned boat until help came but Hammond apparently decided to swim for land, according to Sheriff Gerald V. Price. He said the other two men reported Hammond swam and floated for quite a while before they finally lost sight of him.

Meanwhile, Ed Carriere of Waveland spotted the two men in distress through binoculars from his beach home and his grandson, William, dispatched Dennis Beud, 14, and Gene Boud, 9, in a boat to help them.

The sheriff's force, civil defense units and rescue squads from Pass Christian, Long Beach and Keesler Air Force Base immediately began combing the waters in search of Hammond and the Coast Guard dropped flares to illuminate the area until about midnight Saturday. The search was resumed at daybreak Sunday and continued until late at night with no trace being found. It began again shortly after light Monday morning when Horace Ruhl noticed the body off Nicholson Avenue, the sheriff said.

Skin divers Bobby Van Cullen, Louis Fernandez and Richard Holmes joined boats of the Fish and Game Commission, Marine Conservation Committee, Charles Breath and others in probing the waters while over-head the Cessna 120 of Coroner Emilie Piazza circled at low altitudes in the search. Piazza and Jack Seuzanneau alternating at the controls.

Rescue crews headquartered in front of the summer cottage at 406 Waveland Beach which the Hammond, Triche and Parr families had taken for the week. Other members of the families joined Mrs. Hammond and the two young children in the long vigil and (Cont. on Page 4.)

Add 3 to Faculty For North Central

Three new faculty members were elected by the county board of education Saturday to fill vacancies on the staff at Hancock North Central School during the coming term.

Named on the recommendation of North Central Superintendent J. D. Penton were William Lloyd Seal, science teacher and assistant football coach; L. J. Bates, junior high English, and Mrs. Bessie T. Bates, librarian.

Seal is a graduate of Mississippi Southern College and comes here from Industrial in Pearl River County. She was in Hattiesburg last year. The two men

Mrs. Otis Gets Pilgrimage Post

Mrs. Waldo Odis was appointed Spring pilgrimage chairman by the Mississippi Gulf Coast Council of Garden Clubs at the group's meeting last Wednesday in Gulfport. Mrs. Richard Hays will be co-chairman.

Also on the agenda was the acceptance of the Town and Country Garden Club of Waveland into the group. There were Mercedes Hildreth Ogden, Jean McDermott, Reuben Gray, Ruth Laderbach, Gordon Gleim, Ben Hilla, C. R. Beyer, Albert Kucha, John Sarna, P. J. Trammel, Hugh Miller and Waldo Odis.

have A certificates and Mrs. Bates has an AA rating.

The board also considered whether some revision may be necessary in its policy of hiring only A certificated persons as new staff members as the Aug. 31 opening date for the 1962-63 session fast approaches. Penton said state requirements will permit five B teachers in a school of North Central's size.

On the advice of its attorney, Walter J. Phillips, the board provided that value of the home and utilities furnished the principal at North Central be based on a value of $75 a month with $50 allocated to the house and $25 to utilities; $30 a month each for house rent for the principals at Logtown and Gulfview Schools and $25 each a month for utilities, and rent for teachers at $30 a month for a house or apartment.

Prices were called for at the Aug. 6 meeting on offers to buy the system's old dump truck and Penton reiterated the need for repairs to the roof at North Central which continues to leak badly. Lloyd Johnson was hired at $1.25 an hour as a temporary bus mechanic pending repair of a former employee from National Guard service.

New Phone Books Note DDD Use

New telephone directories listing area codes for the United States and parts of Canada were issued last week by Southern Bell Telephone Co., to aid in the use of direct distance dialing. Southern Bell's newest and most modern service, which goes into effect in Bay St. Louis on Aug. 12.

In order to provide this new service, which will enable patrons to dial their own long distance calls, a plan was devised to make each telephone number in the country different. The U. S. and Canada were divided into areas, each assigned a code of three numbers. Thus the combination of an area code plus telephone number makes each subscriber's number unique.

Plans for a $220,000 project to serve 155 new applicants in North Hancock County, with an exchange located near Standard are incomplete.

Present Land Use Map

A long range land use plan and map and companion preliminary zoning ordinance were presented to the City Planning Commission Tuesday night by planning consultant Robert S. Bateman at the nucleus of the comprehensive city plan for Bay St. Louis.

Bateman explained that this land use map and plan are not inflexible but flexible ideas for a feasible plan for organized growth of our city's physical and area as opposed to the haphazard expansion of the past.

Some urban growth problems faced by the city planners are adequate streets, downtown parking facilities, future housing of good quality, public utilities, education, etc. The plan is also concerned with the location of existing and proposed schools, playgrounds, community facilities, roads, highways, defense establishments and the like.

With these factors in mind, Bateman and his associates have divided the 1,920 acres within the city limits and a goodly portion of land outside the corporate limits of the city, into six neighborhoods, each defined by a major thoroughfare, railroad, canal or river. Each neighborhood, according to the basic concept of city planning, will include approximately 300 square miles of land area, be surrounded by a major street but not traversed by any major thoroughfare, railroad, etc., and include an elementary school and park of playground, centrally located if possible. These plans will be altered to cope with existing physical features.

High, medium and low density population areas subdivisions in each neighborhood will be determined by the zoning plan, as well as business and industrial locations.

Bateman's initial zoning plan included four major industrial sites and three major business districts including a strip along U. S. 90 extending outside the corporate limits of the city.

Fred Wagner, commission chairman, Boseman, and City Commissioner J. Cyril Glover, plan a meeting in the near future with the county board of supervisors to discuss with them, planning outside the city limits.

Committee members were instructed to familiarize themselves with the land use plan and zoning ordinances so that alterations and corrections might be made at the August meeting.

Polly At Waveland

Less than two weeks ago after turning out four columns in half as many days your reporter vowed not to lay even one finger on a typewriter "til vacation's end—in fact I vaguely remember something about the fact that the mere sight of the small black beast would be a trifle unsettling—however, here we go again. . . just just be a true gossip at heart as we've collected too many little items to let go unmentioned.

We must wish a double happy birthday (belatedly as always) to Lena Cuevas and Jackie Kennedy—both celebrated on July 28. We also have a MYSTERY OF THE WEEK that just can't slip by—Who was the dainty 225 pounder who fell out of bed at his Clearmont Harbor home one night last week???

Old Buddies in Reunion

Raymond Copman and Sam Bordages enjoyed quite a reunion last week—the two Army buddies hadn't seen one another in 17 years. Raymond, Mrs. Copman and children, Phyllis and David, were in Biloxi vacationing (their home is in Missouri) when they decided to inquire if Lakeshore was nearby—they were told it was less than an hour's drive—despite the fact that they pronounced the name Bo-dad-gess, they had little trouble finding Bayou Caddy and Sam. . . the family spent Thursday night with Sam and Grace and plan a longer vacation in this area next year.

Might as well kill two birds, etc., and pass on the word that guests left Peggy and Floyd Hepting's party raving about wonderful food and the like and include our apologies for having missed the affair as we happened to be in Tennessee the night of the party, Saturday, July 28.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Nathaniel (Tippy) Hammond who so tragically drowned in a boating accident late Saturday afternoon—Joe Celson, special CD officer for this area, said Mrs. Hammond was truly grateful to all who aided in the search for her husband. Many kept a vigil on the pavilion for endless hours while others volunteered services in various ways. The accident could have had even more disastrous results had not Eddie Carrere not spotted Hammond's fishing compenents clinging to the overturned boat through a powerful pair of binoculars.

Lots of weekenders as always—Winnie and Jack Holmes and Pat and Scott Taylor had a ball—as did Yvonne and Jack Humphreys, the Harry Hites and cousins, Ethel and Herbert Elserlah—Ethel and Herbert always rent a home on the Coast for their annual vacation—this year they located in the Pass, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rudn also had to settle for the Pass—they and their two children had just returned from New York City where they visited Joe's brother, Paul, then travelled to Charleston, S. C., to spend a few days with Mrs. Rudn's brother, Andrew Brittain.

Charlie Ferry will no doubt slay us, he loathes seeing his name in print, but he let the fact slip that he and Libby enjoyed a three-week Canadian vacation in May. . . so we're reporting this bit more than a little belatedly.

Everybody's Having Birthdays

More birthdays, Gladys Bethes and little Kevin de Haan celebrated the same day, July 25. . . Buddy Haverly, on the following day. . . Gladys, husband Oscar and Yvonne and Eddie Virgilio took in the Boomerang; Kevin cut a very fancy cake—forgot to ask Buddy how he observed the day. Happy Birthday greetings also to Joe Wymer, he and wife Louise enjoyed a night on the town July 31. Congratulations to Kate and Roy Saut who observed their 21st wedding anniversary July 26.

Rev. Ronnie Whitlow was a recent guest of Ben and George Georgi. . . Ben attended his ordination in Rome last December. Mr. and Mrs. Salvador Compagno were proudly displaying their three-month-old daughter to Haverly's patrons Sunday night. The Compagnos weekendend in their Jeff Davis summer home.

Baldwin Wilday thoroughly enjoyed his vacation last week. . . he fished every day and brought back so many big trout that wife Doris is now shopping for a deep freeze.

Get well wishes to Dan Sellen and Jim Mayfield. . . both were under doctor's treatment for bronchial pneumonia last week. Also to Paul LeVasseur who is well on the road to recovery following recent major surgery.

We must apologize to Walter, Brenda, Jeffrey, Emily, Elaine and Judy Yarborough and Sandra Hickey. . . all have assisted Red Villere in his money making projects for Elwood Bourgeois Memorial Park.

Mrs. Winn Holmes of Hialeah, Fla., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Olive Vogelberg and niece, Mary Stewart. June and Jimmy McCann are proprietors of the newest restaurant on U. S. 90, the Teddy Bear.

St. Clare's Church Fair time once more and we wish to remind one and all of the fish fry at the parish hall Friday night. If you're unable to attend just call HO 7-4683, HO7-5109 or HO 7-6117 and your dinner will gladly be delivered to your home. . . beer and soft drinks will also be included in this delivery service.

Bay Side of the News

John McDonald must have been fed up with the dry weather prior to the weekend showers—he was hissing riding along in his blue convertible Saturday with the top down, apparently enjoying a cooling shower of rain drops. Brother Angelo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Benigno spent the weekend at Saintslava, Curran and Toby Piazza and Ellen and Ludwig Morca deserved the Bay for Waveland Sunday night—Ruth Ellen appeared determined to teach brother-in-law Toby the twist.

Betty and Fred Race and George and Bob Tergerson and collective offspring have gone back to nature with a bang. . . they spent last week-end on Hickory Creek—Ann Develle joined the group for a picnic Sunday. . . they reported a really wonderful time—no gnats or mosquitoes, cool breezes—we happen to recall another such eating last year which was more or less foiled by precipitation. Happy to hear that Mrs. Raymond Talbot is feeling much better although she's still hospitalized. . . "Uncle" Jules Favre to completing his recovery at Gulfview Haven.

Bob Hubbard recently returned from Minnesota where he visited sister Ann and husband Donald Levy.

The Clarence Springers are vacationing at "West and Hollar", their Ausley summer home. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bradley dined with them last Tuesday.

On the Sports Front

Good for a change. . . Mary and Mac McGill tell us that everybody who went out (Nine Mile, Grassy Isle, Half Moon, etc.) came home with fish Saturday and if we slightly stretch a point I guess it could be said that one hunts crabs. . . as we must mention that Oswald Villere not only caught an enormous number Friday (and this no one

PAKISTANI TREASURES—Mrs. B. F. Rohleman, left, of Bay St. Louis, watches with interest as her sister, Mrs. Ethel Jane Bunting, right, associated with the Smithsonian Institute, Washington, D. All jewelry pieces and the costume worn by Mrs. Bunting are authentic Pakistani garb. In the background is a scene rubbing from a tomb in Portofino, done by Mrs. Bunting for the Institute.

In going to believe) he also cleaned them! Omega and Maxwell Sweeney had an eventful, to say the least, fishing trip Friday—they decided to spend the night on their boat. . . first they were attacked by swarms of overgrown gnats. . . darkness eliminated this menace. . . then the mosquitoes arrived. . . Maxwell learned over the stern to rinse his hands and a wave removed his wristwatch. . . what Omega should have been more than enough trouble for one family, but Omega slipped and ran a cleat almost through her palm. . . by the way, they did catch fish.

Lester Tenkralley of Okaloosa, Fla., and Dale Teber of Choctawhatchee, Ala., were guests of Mrs. Lena Cuevas and sons Elmo and Felson. Lester Dale and Felson, stationed at Ft. Chaffee with the National Guard, came to the Bay with an advance detachment to return vehicles preparatory to the unit's release later in the month—the group was grounded due to unsafe flying weather, consequently the visit.

More get well wishes. . . J. P. Dumestre spent the week-end in his Nicholson Avenue summer home for the first time since undergoing surgery in New Orleans. . . Mrs. Dumestre, daughter, Piccola Dietrich, and guest, Mrs. Hazel Yager, were also along.

Thelma and Paul Henley are jubilant over the birth of their first daughter, who arrived at Hancock General last week—Paul just couldn't believe it was really a girl when the nurse informed of this fact. . . we won't repeat his exact words, but we'll mention that he expressed a positive doubt as to her veracity.

The community as a whole was saddened by the passing of Joe Capdepon, former Bay High star athlete, who died in Houston, Texas last week. Joe was unable to attend the recent 15th reunion of his graduating class at the lovely home of the Walter Duparquier, but talked at length with classmates on a specially wired telephone-loudspeaker hookup arranged by Ott Brockman.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY—Brown sun-scorched lawns turning green once again as daily rain showers arrive—cuddly, grey clouds accompanying dance causing hordes of brightly clad bathers to perform an amazingly rapid cancan from the beach and the hustle and bustle of vacationers dashing here and there squeezing the most possible moments of fun from the annual two weeks off.

traffic crawled along this crowded strip of Beach Boulevard.

An inquest jury impaneled by Coroner Piazza returned a verdict of death by accidental drowning. Jurors were Fred Bourgeois, Gerard Freeman, Gerald Favre, Gerald V. Price, Jr., Norvin Penrose, Lucien Kidd and Sheriff Price as bailiff. The coroner said he understood the boat overturned when one of the men shifted from his seat in the stern when the water was choppy. The body was pulled in by Town Marshal Fred Bourgeois and Deputy Gerald Favre.

The victim recently had been elected president of the Avondale Lions Club and was a gridiron star in the early 1950s at Francis T. Nicholls High School. He also was well known in softball circles. Funeral rites were Tuesday in New Orleans with burial in Masonic Cemetery.

By Gone Days

25 YEARS AGO

July 30, 1937 - William Roger Garcia was named president of the Bay organization of the Gulf Coast Shrimpers and Oystermen's Assn., Inc., at the group's first meeting last Wednesday. One of the aims of the local union is to bring more boats, and thus more business, to Bay St. Louis.

10 YEARS AGO

Aug. 1, 1952 - Gov. Hugh White and several other dignitaries inspected Mississippi's first off-shore oil well Monday. The well is located in the Mississippi Sound, ten miles southwest of Bay St. Louis.

moda, noting that when appraisals on similar properties appear inconsistent a check is made. Since the process is based on expert opinion, there is naturally no one answer, he continued, adding that since the men have no personal interest in any particular property there is no reason for them to place higher or lower values on it.

"I realize that the moving by a great many of these landowners will work a hardship on them and that in many cases they will suffer damages for which they cannot be compensated," he concluded. "However, I can only pay for the property acquired in accordance with the law and I am unable to pay for any consequential damages."

In Washington, Sen. John Stennis said moving expenses were virtually assured for persons displaced by the construction of the test facility since the appropriation bill for the facility "cleared conference" and the House and Senate have ironed out differences in the bill.

The bill calls for moving expense payments for all persons displaced by the site since Nov. 1, 1961, "even if they have already moved." Moving expenses are separate and apart from the price paid to landowners by the government in acquiring space for the missile site.

Express Nips 7-Up, Diggers Take Lead

Gulf Coast Express, winner of only three games all season in 12 games, one by forfeit, shocked 7-Up 5-4 last Wednesday in Little League action. The win pushed 7-Up out of first place and moved Ken's Little Diggers into that position.

Gulf Coast Express scored three runs in the fifth and final inning and then put down a 7-Up rally to win in the league's biggest upset of the season. The Express club got good pitching from M. Benigno and made the two hits they got off the pitching of Claude Varborough count for two runs in the third and three in the fifth.

The game's excitement reached a peak in the last of the fifth with 7-Up, down 7-2, bunting for the last time. After the first batter walked, Claude Varborough got 7-Up back into the thick of things with a two-run homer. After two were out, three walks loaded the bases and pitcher Benigno registered a strike-out to end the game.

Benigno and Wilkerson got the only hits for Gulf Coast Express, while Varborough led 7-Up with two safeties.

Ken's triumphed 12-3 over the Junior Sheriffs Monday afternoon and 18-0 over Gus Old Friday. The victory over the Junior Sheriffs in surprisingly easy fashion gained revenge for one of Ken's two early-season defeats.

Don't Be Long Til Grid Time

Football still holds the spotlight so far as seasonal sports go. The '62 football campaign will soon be upon us. Local teams will begin pre-season practice sessions in about two weeks, and professional grid squads are starting their training camps in a matter of days - in fact the NFL champion Packers begin training camp in Chicago.

Football season, annually one of the top grid attractions, is nationally televised over ABC (Channels 3 and 13) with games scheduled for 8 p.m., and several stars from this area are expected to participate for both teams.

Of interest to local fans, two American Football League games will be played in this area. New Orleans will be the site of a contest between the league champs, the Houston Oilers, and the Boston Patriots, scheduled for Aug. 18, 10:30 a.m. The Oilers move to Mobile to meet the Buffalo Bills.

Is Bowlers' Next Goal

Bowling in the Bay area is coming through with above-average results, and before long the aim of two or three is going to be to break 600 series rather than 600 which at one time seemed almost impossible to get.

The fast-rising scores, a 600 Club has been formed at the Bay Center membership limited to those bowlers who have a three-game series of 600 or better in league competition.

Reinike, Vernon Bernard, Darold Carlet, Al Lambita, Henry Griffin, Albert Brigan, Dave Poindeux, Merle Poindeux and Beck Kimball are already in the club. Reinike is president, Bernard, vice president, and Lambita, secretary-treasurer. One of the features of the club is the awarding of a large trophy to all members breaking 600. The trophies are now on display at the Bay Bowl.

Kimball holds down high average in the Thursday night league, sporting a 185, presently the best in Bay St. Louis. Reinike claims three above-par averages, 180, 174, and 169. In scratch league, a men's handicap league, and a mixed league, Poindeux and Lambita Griffin are bowling at a 180 per game average, and Poindeux has a 176 average in another. Kimball also holds two good averages, 177 and 167.

Young Mike Looks Good

Poindeux, who'll enter high school this year, gave in to the things to come Monday night in the eight-team Alleyway minor league when he turned in by far the best series bowled by a junior at the local lanes. Poindeux scored 200-625, and could have had even more in the last game, but a solid seven pin on a string of four strikes, and coming in a split in the sixth frame at what looked like a pretty good Poindeux bowled a total of 205 pins above his average for the season, pushing his mark up eight pins to 148. He now leads the bowlers with that average but Tommy Humphreys and Gary Cox of Bay High juniors next year, are close behind. Poindeux's series were bowled against the league's first place team, making even higher achievement.

We think Poindeux's series points out one thing in particular that all bowlers should remember—you don't have to throw a ball to score high. Although we know that Mike is fully capable of throwing a hard fast ball, he has one of the slowest deliveries in the league. He prefers to let the ball curve in and do the work, and that his scores prove that his brand of bowling isn't bad.

Sports stars of the week: Charlie Maxwell, Chicago White Sox pitcher, continued to be amazing with his Sunday homers, hitting two against Yankees Sunday in a twin-bill. Over 1/3 of his career homers have come on Sunday; Ted Kroll, Florida professional, won the 100,000 Canadian Open last weekend by two shots; Gene Fullmer, NBA middleweight champion, one of the best boxer going today, signed to defend his crown against Dick Tiger in San Francisco Sept. 12/

We've noticed with interest the steady and good performance of Mississippi Mary Mills, state women's amateur golf champion for eight straight years. Miss Mills joined the professional tour early in the summer and has finished high in almost every event, once coming in second.

Moran Nips Mollere

Moran scored two runs in the top of the seventh inning to win the game for the Bay St. Louis team over the OLG's 13-11. Mollere's team was the first of the Women's Softball League to win. Undeclared OLG ran over Moran's 17-5 in the nightcap.

Mollere's came from behind to tie the score in the sixth and scheduled timing of the game's opener but lost in the extra frame. Pat Garvey, the game's hitting star, hitting two home runs, while the winning pitcher for Moran's was Maria Pierce. Carol Mollere took the loss.

OLG added their first-place and even more in the second game, although Jerome's team early with two four-base hits. The game was postponed because of rain. The team returns to action today with a game scheduled for 6:30 p.m., and the girls will play again Sunday at 6:30.

Season Hours End

Reinike, Kiln Post Victories

Reinike's Dirt Dobbers topped Roland Signs 7-3 and Kiln Youth Center downed Kramky 5-3 in Bay Softball League play Monday night.

Reinike used good hitting by Gene Tarzant and Buddy Pitalo in posting their victory. Pitalo was 3-3 and Tarzant collected two hits in as many bats. Billy Caborne pitched the distance for the winners, and Louis Lohner was charged with the loss.

Kiln Youth Center spotted Kramky a one-run lead 2-1, then pulled away to a 5-2 lead before Kramky could score again. Harold Arlison, the league's leading hitter with a .611 mark going into the game, hit safely twice for the winners, Alan Lohner was the winning pitcher, and Billy McDonald the loser.

No games were played Friday and Wednesday nights because of the State Slow-Pitch tournament in Biloxi in which four league teams participated. Southern Realty currently holds down first place by a game over Reinike's, with Industrial Enameling another game behind. These three teams are assured of spots in the play-off, while Trapani's and the Bay Knights of Columbus are fighting for the fourth. Both these squads still have to play Southern Realty and also will face each other.

Four more nights of play remain on the schedule, including last night's game. Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Youth Center Win String Reaches 15

Youth Center scored early Sunday night in beating Sunny Signs 5-1 for their 15th consecutive victory. Thursday, Youth Center had whipped the Echo Scopes 10-6.

Youth Center scored over Sunny behind the no-hit pitching of Gary Noto. A first inning run came across on a leadoff single by Vincent Cuevas, a walk to Danny Kramky, and an error, and to league leaders added three more runs to their total in the second. A walk to John Shar-tuck, a triple by Stanley Weidmann, and singles by Johnny Jameson and Larry Jacobson accounted for the runs.

Sunny finally scored in the fourth without a hit, but Youth Center matched that run with one of their own, also without a safe blow. Noto was the winner. Bruce Cox took the loss - he allowed only four hits but three were in the big second frame.
